Unitarians Condemn Russian Invasion

March 14, 2022

The Board of Trustees of the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship in Newton, NJ, has released the following statement:

“The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Sussex County, NJ, condemns the Russian invasion of Ukraine and the brutal loss of life and property it has caused. Our hearts are with the victims and their families.”

We join with other religious organizations that have spoken out publicly against this tyranny.
